

Richard K. Bennett... is a native of Chattanooga, TN. He's been married to his soul mate for fourteen years and has two beautiful children; Jireh and Kevin.

Richard is founder and executive director of A Better Tomorrow, Inc., which focuses on helping at-risk youth discover their purpose through Life Skills Education and Mentoring. Richard's motivation is to change a culture and negative mindsets and promote youth empowerment. Richard is a motivational speaker, life coach, literacy, drug and violence prevention advocate.

Richard mentors young men in local middle, high schools and in the juvenile detention center. He is also the co-owner of Xquisite Travels and has been a licensed ordained minister for the past ten years. He is a graduate of City High School. He attended Covington Theological Seminary.

Richard is available to motivate, inspire and impact:

Men's Retreats

Churches

Schools Assemblies and Workshops

Youth Groups

Youth Camps & Teen Retreat

Juvenile Detention Centers

Motivational Sessions with Corporate Leaders

Please contact us about fees